Training

I began my training at age twelve with one year of tae kwon do, at age thirteen i began training in shaolin Kung fu under 34th generation shaolin temple fighting monk Shifu Shi Guolin, where I trained for 7 years learning advanced skills in sparring, aerial kicking, acrobatics, ect. During my time in highschool I completed 2 years of theatre. I began training in stunt and fight choreography at age 15 and worked on small projects with friends and classmates throughout the years. I have performed over 50 times for various events including solo performance for the New York Mets game in Shea stadium and at Hong Kong University. In 2009 I began coaching gymnastics full time for the next following two years.
